North Central Avian Disease Conference, MPF Celebrate 10 Year-Partnership

(Buffalo, MN) ... For the 10th straight year, the 65th annual North Central Avian Disease Conference (NCADC) will precede the Midwest Poultry Federation (MPF) Convention on March 17-18, 2014, at the Saint Paul RiverCentre, St. Paul, MN.

There is a separate registration fee to attend this event. NCADC attendees may register through MPF, either online or using the pre-registration form via fax/mail.

"We've established such a terrific, long-running partnership with NCADC, which always offers an excellent program of speakers and topics. This partnership allows our attendees further educational and networking opportunities, conveniently located in the same facility as the MPF Convention," said MPF President William Claybaugh of the Nebraska Egg Council.

Schedule:

MONDAY, MARCH 17

Scientific presentations and management symposium (morning & afternoon)

Business Meeting (late afternoon)

Awards Banquet (evening)

TUESDAY, MARCH 18

Management symposium continues (morning)

- Lighting by Brian Wilcox, Once Innovations (laying hens and meat birds)
- Ventilation by Ken Lamm, Cargill-Akey (laying hens) and Dr. Brian Fairchild, University of Georgia (meat birds)
- Feed by Dr. Anthony Quant, Kalmbach Feeds (general)
