3 Things You Need to know about the 2018 MPF Convention

Details and Online Registration Available at midwestpoultry.com

(Buffalo, Minn.) ... The 2018 Midwest Poultry Federation (MPF) Convention is moving back to Minneapolis after 20 years and with that comes some significant changes to the show as well as several exciting new events.

“As people make their plans to join us March 13-15 for the MPF Convention, we’d like to highlight three especially important pieces of information we want everyone to know,” said MPF Executive Director Steve Olson.

- 1) Education workshops start on Tuesday this year! Yes, the entire schedule has changed - based on attendee and exhibitor feedback - so be sure to check out our website and make your plans accordingly.
- 2) Exhibits are open 10 am - 4 pm both Wednesday and Thursday! That means more time to visit all the booths -- and for those who are fairly local to the area, if you can't make it Wednesday, you still have all day Thursday to head to Minneapolis and check things out!
- 3) Get ready for a boot stomping, high energy concert by country music recording artist Sawyer Brown, and make sure you purchase your table for MPF Unhatched: An Evening of Eats and Entertainment! We have added new table options for this awesome new event that range from $150 - $1200. All purchases include a gourmet meal + wine pairing created exclusively for MPF as well as the Sawyer Brown concert! Table purchases are available NOW online or onsite at the MPF Convention beginning Tuesday, March 13.
 - Full table (8 people) - $1200
 - 1/2 table (4 people) - $600
 - 1/4 table (2 people) - $300
 - 1/8 table (1 person) - $150
